

Contents

Editorial.....	xiii
-----------------------	-------------

Manuscripts in Arabic Language

1) The effect of abstraction of the script in the emergence of Quranic recitations according to Orientalists
Ghanim Al-Hamad .....	19
2) The Problem of the Meccan Verses in the Research of Certain Orientalists
Eltigani Abdelgadir Hamid Rahma.....	48
3) Corpus Coranicum from Philology to Literary Analysis: Critical Vision
Samer Rashwani.....	72
4) The Journal of Quranic Studies published by SOAS London University: The Question of Objectivity and Prejudice
Abdallah El-Khatib .....	91

Manuscripts in English Language

5) The Composition and Writing of the Qur'ān: Old Explanations and New Evidence
Raymond K. Farrin .....	121
6) Historical Criticism and Recent Trends in Western Scholarship on the Qur'an: Some Hermeneutic Reflections
Nicolai Sinai .....	136
7) Digital Humanities and Qur'ānic Manuscript Studies: New Perspectives and Challenges for Collaborative Spaces and Plural Views
Alba Fedeli .....	147
8) Quranic Studies Made in Austria: Approaching Quantitative Arabic Linguistics
Orhan Elmaz.....	159
9) Between Dogmatism and Speculation: A Critical Assessment of Qirā'āt Studies
Suheil Laher.....	176