

Editorial

Praise be to Allah; prayers and peace be upon His Messenger Mohammad, family, companions and all those who follow him:

It is our pleasure to present to the researchers the first issue of the thirty fifth volume of the refereed journal of the Faculty of Sharia and Islamic Studies at Qatar University dated Spring 2017 AD/ 1438 AH.

This edition contains various research papers in the scope of Islamic jurisprudence and other related topics after being refereed by specialized proficient experts from various Islamic countries.

In fact, this issue has been identified as the one where the revised publication rules, as per the required rules of the international classification of journals, have been applied. Thus, it is important to draw the attention of the researchers that some of the items in the publication rules in the journal have been reviewed. The most prominent example is the citation of the research sources and references in both Arabic and English (Anglicizing)

Finally, we hope that through this edition we have been able to provide the best possible and contemporary benefits to the researchers in the Islamic creed and jurisprudence field in particular, and knowledge in general.

We also wish that researchers and readers would make constructive comments that will contribute to the development and international classification of the journal.

We beseech God for help and success.

Prof. Abdul Hakim Abdulrahman Al Saadi

Editor- in- chief of the Journal
